1. Between 30 January and 3 February 1951, the Buehr Kaserne in Dresden (H 52/F 29) was apparently not occupied to capacity. Young soldiers wearing green epaulets were observed in the installation. Passenger car [redacted] occupied by four officers, was seen. (1) 25X1B

2. The Adolf Hitler Kaserne was occupied to capacity by soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The M. were restricted to quarters. Motor vehicles [redacted] were seen. (2) 25X1B

3. The Grenadier Kaserne was occupied to capacity by soldiers who wore red-bordered black epaulets. Many officers of all ranks and branches of service, and heavy vehicular traffic, were observed between 30 January and 3 February. [redacted] all the important officers' meetings, indoctrination courses and lectures, including those for officers from other military posts, took place in the club house of the Grenadier Kaserne. The HO (Handelsorganisation) (Trade Organization) hotel managers were instructed to send Soviet officers to the club house for night lodging in case their hotels were filled. (3) 25X1B

4. The Koenig Georg Kaserne was occupied to capacity by soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Motor vehicles [redacted] were seen there. (4) 25X1

5. On 1 February, barbers employed in the Flak Kaserne, Dresden-Nickern, said that this installation quartered 300 men, including officers. The barbers, who were served all meals in the installation, stated that food was poor. The soldiers had loaves of bread and foodstuffs brought to them at the fence by local civilians. Necessities and luxuries were sold in the installation by the HO store several times weekly. Local residents said that eight AT guns, presumably of 76 mm, were stationed in the billing area. Motor vehicles [redacted] occupied by soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets without branch-of-service insignia, were seen there. (5) 25X1B
